

enting national tools and HCRs (See also 3.4 below), implementing precautionary	Adoption of the tuna management plan principles into existing area based fishery			24 months
--	---	--	--	-----------	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

2. STRENGTHENING THE INSTITUTIONAL

2.1. Decision making and consultation processes consolidated through FKPPS and the Tuna Management Committee, which implements management strategies in territorial, archipelagic and EEZ waters	Legalize FKPPS and the Management Committee as a formal apex institution for Indonesian fishery management role as defined	Facilitate the availability of regulation (e.g. ministerial decrees) which promotes FKPPS and management authority to responsible on the tuna		60 months
---	---	--	--	-----------	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

	Allow for active engagement from stakeholders in management decision	Actively involve industry, research agency, NGOs in meetings related to the fishery decision	SDI, P4KSDI, PUP, PSDKP, KTI dan stakeholder	60 months
2.2. Identification of responsibility and capacity building across the range of implementing bodies	Allocation of tasks to specific stakeholders; Tuna Fisheries Satker, KKP, DKP Provinsi and District and Community groups	Facilitate the availability of regulation (e.g. ministerial decrees, directorate general decrees) on tasks allocation with specific job description to the right agency to support the	SDI, Agency of MAF in province and district, stakeholder as described above.	24 months																															H								H			H

3. RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

	the policy and position papers will be proposed to		6 mt hs																			H
Recommend to WCPFC and IOTC to have a regional LRP	develop policy paper on regional LRP that should be set on biological carrying capacity	SDI, WWF	6 mt hs		H

3.4. Formal harvest strategy adopted for Indonesian Pacific and Indian Ocean tunas linked to a set of (National or RFMO) Limit Reference Points, covering the range of fisheries (including those &lt; 30 GT and 5 GT). The object should be consistent with RFMO advice, which in the case of the Pacific, is to limit effort to 2004 levels, and to reduce effort on YFT and BET by 30%	MMAF develop s Harvest Strategy linked to CMM 2008-01 EEZ/YFT and BET activitie s and restricti ons on effort capped at 2001-2004 levels, In addition , the spirit of the measur es (i.e effort control/ capacity reductio n in territori al /archipe lagic	Support P4KSI on the developm ent of scientific paper with regard to tuna resources and fisheries as a basis to develop the policy paper document	SDI, FKPP, KTI	6 mt hs					H
--	--	--	-----------------------	----------------	--	--	--	--	---	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Incorporate

3.10. Indonesian Research Plan prepared to take account of national and international demands and obligations with appropriate budget funding secured from industry, government and donors.	Information gathering to determine data gaps, tactical focus, critical target stocks (and not confined to current FMA review process), Cost effective risk assessment ingrained into analytical tools, application of ecosystem models, capacity	workshop on information gathering to determine data gaps, tactical focus, critical target stocks (and not confined to current FMA review process), Cost effective risk assessment ingrained into analytical tools, application of ecosystem models, capacity	P4KS DI, (BRP L.,BB RSE, KAPI)	6 months
																							M	M	M

ed into 1.4.

ed into 1.4.